

THEOLOGY & PEACE

An emerging movement seeking the transformation of theological practice through an anthropology of nonviolence.

Fourth Annual Conference Transforming Christianity!

May 31 - June 2, 2011

College of Notre Dame of Maryland, Baltimore

A gathering for theologians, pastors, activists and others, to develop the insights of mimetic anthropology toward the formation of a theology, community and practice of peace.

A time to dialogue with one another, and with . . .

Brian McLaren on Christianity Transformed and Transforming Theologian and author of A New Kind of Christianity, and many other books

Michael Hardin on The Babylonian Captivity of the Gospel
Co-Founder of PreachingPeace.org and author of The Jesus Driven Life

Suzanne Ross on Beyond Power Struggles: Teaching Without Rivalry
Co-Founder of Raven Foundation, and author of The Wicked Truth: When Good People Do Bad Things

For registration and other information about the conference, visit www.TheologyandPeace.org